- Please be aware that if the Miss Peach winner chooses to compete at the state competition, they must have a talent and compete in fitness.

NEWLY CROWNED QUEENS:

- No contestant can serve as a winner in the same division more than once. In other words, you cannot win the same title twice. The reigning queen must wait until the next year to compete in the next age division.
- Parents/guardians give permission for The Lexington County Peach Festival and the Pageant Committee to take pictures of their daughters and authorize publication of these pictures in local newspapers, media, websites, etc.
- Parents/guardians shall not hold The Lexington County Peach Festival or any member of the Pageant Committee liable for any accident or injury incurred during the pageant, while en-route to or from the pageant, or while the winner is fulfilling duties of title.
- Parents/guardians shall not hold The Lexington County Peach Festival or any member of the Pageant Committee liable or responsible for any property damaged, lost, or stolen during the pageant.
- The pageant directors reserve the right to make changes to the by-laws and/or the application.
- Peach Queens agree not to be involved in any inappropriate behavior that would negatively reflect on their titles and the festival during their reigns. Inappropriate pictures and comments posted on cell phones and/or social networks such as Facebook will be taken seriously. Such behavior will result in loss of title, crown, trophy, banner, and scholarship award.
- Queens must represent the Lexington County Peach Festival and the Gilbert Community by:
 - Riding the festival float in all required parades.
 - Attending all banquets/events.

- Attending all publicity/media appearances organized by the Publicity Chairman, Peach Pageant Directors, and the Lexington County Peach Festival Executive Committee.
- Note: If a queen cannot fulfill her duties as specified, she must relinquish her title, crown, trophy, banner, and scholarship award.
- Cash awards will be awarded by checks and will be awarded after the queens fulfill their duties for the reigning year.
- Queens may participate in other pageants if these titles do not interfere with the duties of the Peach titles.
- If non-residency is proven after the crowning, title, crown, trophy, banner, and cash award will be relinquished.
- Newly-crowned queens will begin their reigns on July 4th.
- A contract will be issued for each queen and her legal parent/guardian to read and sign. The contract must be returned to the pageant directors on the day of crowning.
